Fulton Says: Thanks For The Millage Hope You Vote For Me!

"We wish to thank all of those who voted Tuesday for the school millage taxes as requested by the PB County School Board," says Superintendent Fulton.

"The overwhelming vote in favor of the request proves once again that PB County is school conscious, and believes in good education for its youth," he continues.

"We shall continue the task already commenced of up-grading the curricula and raising the creditation levels of the schools."

"We promise to do our best to see that our income is carefully and wisely spent for the betterment of education of all our PB County children."

"During the '64 campaign I was one of four, out of five candidates who favored an appointive, rather than an elective, Superintendent. All things considered the four of us thought that from a constructive educational standpoint the appointing of a Superintendent is preferable to an elected official."

"During the recent campaign, I restated my preference. Tuesday our voters took the opportunity to state their preference. This is the American way. We would want it no other way."

C. A. Bailey Glades Pioneer Buried Today

Clarence Andrew Bailey, 71, 551 S. E. First St., Belle Glade well known Real Estate broker, passed away at 9:50 P. M. Monday, November 1 at Wilkes Nursing Home in Lake Park, Fla.

A native of Towanda, Pennsylvania, he moved, from St. Cloud, Fla., to Pahokee in 1930 where he resided for eight years moving to Belle Glade in 1942.

He had been a real estate broker for the past 30 years until his permanent retirement, when his son Bill J. Bailey took over.

Mr. Bailey was a corporal during World War I, serving in the Motor transport Division overseas. He

Of the 7,634 eligible voters in the eight precincts along the eastern and southern shores of Lake Okechobee in Palm Beach County, 1,362 or approximately 18%, appeared to register a feeling on spending millions in the county for school improvement and for miscellaneous obligations of the County Commission, as well as serious and important questions concerning school administration, the Courts of the land, and clerical handling of the County's business.

Glades voters are almost 3 to one in favor of the $300 Million state road improvement program; they want to increase the Board of Public Instruction to seven members by 7 to 6. Glades citizens voted for school improvements from three to three, despite the east coast's 90% interest — we get some improvements to the Lake Harbor Park promoted by our County Commissioner.

We voted about three to one in favor of the school millage increase. The Glades is against:

(a) Abolishing School Trustees.

(b) Eliminating the salary of Board Members.

(c) Appointment of the School Superintendent from Canal Point.

(d) No "Amendment 4" (road); A-B-C-D-E and School Millage increase.

Of the county's total of 115,809 eligible voters, 28,213 voted on the bond issue, and against it. The County voted against increasing the Board of Public Instruction, against appointing the County School Superintendent.

It is noted here that the east coast voted against four lanes U. S. No. 441 and State Road No. 1, a much travelled highway from the Glades to the Coast, and down the east coast to the County line.

They voted against four-laning U. S. No. 27 from South Bay to the county line.

The Glades voted FOR near 1-3/4 millions of county improvements along the east coast (we get a small bit for the Lake Harbor Park).

Voters on the east coast stayed home in droves.

They apparently are satisfied with the toll road and I-95, plus U. S. No. 1 improvement; they also apparently don't want their "country cousins" from the Glades to visit them except on payday, and then in confusion on the highways and alongside treacherous canals.

Belle Glades two precinct have 2,489 eligible voters of which 681 voted — 97 voted 523 and 99 voted 158 out of 1,520 eligible.

South Bay's vote of 113 is against 602 eligibles; Lake Harbor voted 43 out of 260 eligibles.

Chosen voters stayed away from the polls by a vast majority — 43 of the 260 eligibles.

Apparent the Johnsonian Democrats stayed home for fear of missing a televised report of Presidential gall and stones, and thereby aided the politically opportune republicans to deny the Glades road improvements which are many years late now.

Community Pride Justified in 3 Jobs Well Done!

The Palm Beach Blood Bank Mobile Unit lacked nine containers having enough to take blood from the 109 eligible donors of blood for Charles (Chuck) Rimes, Thursday.

Fourteen were declared ineligible of the 123 that showed up.

When the community indicated by singles, doubles and groups that they would gladly respond to the need for 34 pints of blood, ALREADY used and advanced by the Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami by Chuck it was determined that a mobile unit, is the most practical method for gathering a quantity of blood in the Glades.

The Palm Beach Blood Bank agreed to send it's mobile unit to Belle Glade if a minimum of 75 pints were assured.

A group of ladies from the BFWC and a chapter of sorority joined as a Committee, with Mrs. Don Casey and Mrs. James Chambliss as Co-chairmen, to plan for the visit of the mobile unit.

The Unit was notified that the minimum would be met easily; so the Unit came; the donors came — 109 able and ready to give blood.

"The most successful trip we've had" said one of the Unit operators.

Donors included groups from the Jaycees, the BFW, the Sorority, Fire and Police Departments and City Employees, the Fla. Power &

Light and the telephone company; there was a group of high school students, and many individuals.

Lunch was served by the Committee to the operators and attendants of the Mobile Unit.

The generosity of the community allows Chuck Rimes to have 75 pints of blood "in bank," he will need it for he faces a lifetime of need.

Citizens of Belle Glade have responded to an appeal by the Athletic Council for athletic equipment to be used by students of Belle Glade Junior High school to the tune of more than $4,000. Parents of Jr. High students fattened the "kitty" with $1,200 to start with; individuals and business firms have brought the total to more than $4,000.

Sam Senter and Big B Ranch appreciated the value of organized physical instruction in the schools so much that each gave $750 to the fund.

"The response of the many is very encouraging," says Principal Herman Close. "It demonstrates the feeling of the parents & those who have no students in our school, and lends encouragement to the Faculty and the Coaching Staff."

"However," he continued, "when business firms such as Mr. Senter and Big B Ranch invest $750 each in the Youth of our schools, citizenship of the highest concept is evidenced, and Pride in Community stands taller."

The athletic program at Belle Glade Junior High contemplates the participation of girls as well as boys, baseball, basketball, hand ball and tennis, to insure the greatest individual participation.

The gifted, the persevering and the ambitious will find the basic coaching of the lower grades makes them advanced candidates for athletic teams when high school is reached.

The immediate program of action is football with near 100 from an enrollment of approximately 500 on the field. Intra mural games are scheduled as well as some with other Junior HI footballers.

This community's fervent response to needs of it's youngsters is represented during the Halloween season in three special events:

The more than expected generosity, with organized planning, in the donation of blood for 24-year-old Chuck Rimes, a hemophiliac victim, when a planned list of 75 donors expanded into 109 actual and 123 eligible donors, Thursday.

The ease with which the Athletic Council provided a fund of more than $4,000 from parents, friends and business houses, to provide equipment for athletic participation by the Junior High students;

The monumental effort of all organized groups of the area in putting on the Halloween celebrations with their parades, pony rides, refreshment, jim-cracks and what-a-may-call-it's for the "littluns."

Many scores of grown-ups and some real old — spent hours in all these events, and particularly the Halloween celebration. Those who participated directly are

Our Hospitality Is Challenged!

The Glades reputation for hospitality, as a community, is more than County-wide. It is area-wide. Tallahassee has memories of it; many ranking officers of the US Engineers and Legislators from our National Capital, have marveled at the graciousness and capacity of the Glades as a Host; ex-President Hoover was sincere in his gratitude for our fortitude of thought and consumption of plants; boat-cadders and rubber-tired travellers seeking casual enjoyment of camping and fishing have recorded their compliments.

In a field never heretofore given unified community thought, we're challenged to offer the planning of a neighborly invitation to newcomers — nurses at our new hospital, and our schoolteachers.

The Glades is notorious in it's lack of appeal to ladies on first contact and consideration as a potential home. Hardly a family but has a lady who recollects the first months here of "home-sickness."

There're no more loyal and home-loving mothers than residents of the Glades.

The first weeks and months residence for the newly arrived nurses and teachers is particularly trying when they are unattached, with no family or previous friendly ties.

Those who come with families find neighborliness lacking until casual fraternizing slowly cements an interest.

The area has the facilities of every-day use to receive these young newcomers who are so important to us, into the life of the community as participants and builders in areas for which their inclinations, integrity and education have prepared them.

A committee representative of EVERY group and organization, men and women, social and fraternal, religious professional or political, might well become a permanent vehicle of PLANNED INITIATION into the real Glades Community. These newcomers are from homes such as you and I know; they enjoy cultural contacts, fraternal associations and religious satisfaction; they dance, swim, golf, fish, boat and enjoy the fraternization of likes and opposites.

A bit of planning and coordinating will blend these sinews of health and education into our community life, sincerely and effectively.

If you think it's easy to keep the vacancies competently filled, ask Pellon Morris or any school principal; ask Mrs. Wright, Supervisor of Nurses at the Glades General Hospital, or the Pahokee Hospital Administrator.

The salaries in both fields are not deterrents to professionally prepared applicants.

BY DOING SOMETHING, you're helping yourself, your children, your community; and, well, IT'S THE THING TO DO!

The Cuban Situation And Castro

When Fidel Castro announced that Cubans who didn't like it at home would be free to go to the United States if they so chose, eyebrows were raised. Shortly afterwards, he said he would not only allow them to go, but would aid in their emigration. What, the common question was, could the Cuban dictator have up his sleeve?

That cannot be finally answered now. The Castro mind is subtle and devious, and there may be some surprises coming. But one answer seems to contain considerable logic. It is that those Cubans who hate Castro's brand of communism and what it has done to their island are a needless burden on his distressed economy and that the intelligent course is to be rid of them.

Whether that is true or false, Cuba and her economy are in woeful shape. A recent issue of Time magazine devoted a long feature article to the current situation there under the revealing title, "Cuba: The Decaying Revolution." One passage reads: "What has happened to Castro is disappointment, disillusion and decay. After nearly seven years of power, the grandiose dreams are ended. Gone is the hope of a swift socialist transformation to make agricultural Cuba a Caribbean industrial colossus; the Cuban economy is in tatters, back where it started as a one-crop sugar producer . . . Cuba today is populated by a sullen, lifeless people . . ."

All that is presently keeping Cuba alive economically, Times goes on, is a Russian dolle which runs to about a million dollars a day. In return for that, the Kremlin demands and gets the kind of political rule it wants — which, of course, is largely political rule

Soviet style.

The magazine recounts the changes, all dismal, that have taken place. Havana was once among the gayest of the world's cities and a tourist mecca. Now all is drabness. Prices in many instances are sky high. And the massive effort at industrialization that Castro inaugurated seems to have been an absolute failure. To make matters worse, in some years the sugar crop has been small and now world sugar prices are at a fraction of former levels.

The rot is apparent throughout the economy. The state of the nation's railroad system has been described as "desperate." Breakdowns of equipment of all kinds are frequent and lengthy, due mainly to a lack of replacement parts. As an example, Time says that Cuban Airlines has three British-made four-engine planes. Airlines has three British-made; the other two have to be used to supply parts. And what automobiles are still in operation are "rolling junk heaps." On top of all this, price inflation has drastically reduced the peso's buying power.

How does Castro maintain himself? It is done by brute force. He has, says Time, a 200,000-man army with high quality Russian equipment. Occasionally, an anti-Castro guerrilla band will attempt revolt; it is put down with the utmost ruthlessness. And the army, so far, has been totally loyal to him.

Meanwhile, the U. S. watches Cuba carefully and follows a policy of containment. Time quotes an anti-Castro Cuban as saying: "I think the U. S. is letting us stew in our own juice for a while."

Hearts and Hunt

Arrange to see your doctor two weeks before your trip. Discuss your plans with him and take his advice on safe energy expenditure, medicines to take along, etc.

Know the approximate distance to be covered—know the location of the nearest phone to your camp, the nearest doctor, ranger station or fish and game representative.

Dress sensibly. Consider the climate—both day and night. If you hunt at an altitude higher than where you live start two days early to get acclimated and get adequate rest before the hunt starts. Don't hunt when exhausted—plan your day of hunting and rest often.

After you get that lucky shot wait for help to get your critter out of the woods. The man who stays close to camp is important to a hunting party—and it takes less physical energy. Take a stand and wait for the game to come past you. In three words — TAKE IT EASY!

AMERICAN HEART ASSOCIATION

Shameful

The bill to repeal section 14(b) of the Taft-Hartley Act, which authorizes the states to pass right-to-work laws, has failed so far, as this session of Congress is concerned. It will come up again when the next session opens in January. This time, the bill's supporters in the Senate were unable to drum up the two thirds vote that is needed to adopt cloture and thus prevent extended debate.

By January, Congress may think twice before supporting a law that would deprive the states of an essential right and the working man of an essential freedom. Without right-to-work, the worker is totally at the union's mercy. He has only one choice — to join and pay dues, no matter what his own beliefs are, or to lose his job.

The Portland, Oregonian did a fine job of summing up the matter in a few words: "We fail to understand how a member of Congress can pridefully take away the authority of whites to discriminate against Negroes in housing, education, voting, transportation and employment and in the next breath propose to deny free choice on unionism to all Americans, white and colored . . . It is shameful that members of Congress elected on a platform of freedom and human rights should permit themselves to be brought or intimidated by organized labor to the degree of voting to withdraw the most basic right of an individual — to work or not to work as a free man."

Educating the Consumer

Dear Editor:

I am constantly irritated and alarmed at the complete lack of information consumers have as to the real cause of the relatively high prices of fruits and vegetables this summer. While the drought is partially responsible, it is far and away outweighed by Secretary Wirtz's campaign to get rid of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Jamaican, and other foreign labor. Apparently 99% of these consumers have never heard what he is doing to wreck the abundant supply of fruits and vegetables with which this nation had, until this summer, been blessed. One and all, the consumers seem to think the farmers are holding out on them and getting rich and I think it is high time someone undertaken a job of educating them, through the public press.

As one of the influential agricultural magazines, it seems to me you might stimulate your readers individually and collectively to get the news into their local newspapers that it is a badly misled (or worse) Secretary of Labor who is causing a terrific shortage of labor in the intensive fruit and vegetable sections of the U. S. and causing a great deal of heavy loss to farmers in every area.

Fairfield, N. J. Dr. Martin F. Rasmussen
Emeritus Professor of Marketing
Cornell University

It is wonderful to hear from our favorite professor, who is now retired and has many friends among fruit and vegetable growers. If a paper that every grower should be aware of knew that the Secretary of Labor's policies are causing great losses, Prof. Rasmussen sent along a clipping which tells how one grower led the local community into the situation it is in.

In the form of a letter, it explains why the grower cannot contribute to a charity drive this year, "As present we cannot contribute to charitable organizations. We realize yours is a most worthwhile effort and would like you to know the reasons for our decision."

"We are engaged in agriculture and are presently engaged in a struggle which may alter our whole future as a business. We need competent seasonal labor which in the past we have recruited locally until the supply is exhausted and then from foreign countries."

"Secretary of Labor Wirtz has closed the borders to foreign workers and insists that we recruit from the domestic unemployed, most of whom we know from long experience to be chronic unemployables, and others not physically capable of picking apples. The loss in dollars to farmers, processors, and other allied industries is already in the millions of dollars."

"With these losses facing the industry and since we are in a period of heavy expenses followed by a very dubious harvest picture because of this unaided thinking in Washington, we are forced to turn down all requests for contributions."

"Any help you wish to give in insuring adequate, competent harvest labor to this country's agriculture will be greatly appreciated. Farmers are doing all they can to keep costs of production down and food as inexpensive as possible. We feel this is important to the welfare and economy of the country."

American Education Week Nov. 7-13

What is it?

American Education Week is an annual report time during which the schools tell their owners, the general public, about their purposes, methods, achievements, needs and problems.

How did it begin?

American Education Week grew out of the revelation, during World War I, that a shocking percentage of the American people were illiterate and physically unfit. Since 1921, the observance has been recognized by the National Education Association, the American Legion, the U.S. Office of Education and the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

What is the purpose of it?

American Education Week is designed to make every American aware of the important role education plays in a democratic society and to help him realize that good schools are his personal responsibility.

How are these purposes achieved?

By encouraging the public to visit the schools, and by explaining the achievements and problems of the schools through a variety of media, to those who do not visit the schools.

The theme for 1963's American Education Week is "Invest in Learning". Each day of the week of November 7-13 will emphasize one of these seven areas:

Sunday, November 7—strengthening moral and spiritual values
Monday, November 8—cultivating the intellect
Tuesday, November 9—enhancing personal fulfillment
Wednesday, November 10—improving earning power
Thursday, November 11—developing good citizenship
Friday, November 12—enriching family and community life
Saturday, November 13—deepening international understanding

Witnesses Plan For Assembly

In most schools today there is very little said about God because of the recent Supreme Court ruling on prayer and Bible reading. But November 28 the Vero Beach Junior High School will be re-sound with nothing but prayers, Bible reading and discussions as 1,000 of Jehovah's Witnesses hold their semi-annual circuit assembly according to Alvin P. Crum, presiding minister of the local congregation.

The convention will begin Friday at 6:45 p.m. with a model ministry school demonstrating how Jehovah's Witnesses are trained for the ministry.

Saturday's program will include baptizing new converts, climaxed by Joseph Saia, district supervisor of the Southeastern United States, speaking on the subject "Showing Discernment in the Ministry."

"The object of the Saturday evening program," Crum said, "is because of the need for ministers to use discernment in the pressing times in which we live. People are busy. People are so distracted by a multiplicity of enterprises and pleasures. It would be easy for sincere and conscientious ministers to become frustrated and become deterred from the demands placed up on him as a minister. The Saturday evening program is especially designed to help Jehovah's Witnesses to show discernment in the ministry."

"It will feature mental transformation," he continued, "rather than ritualistic and emotional religious performance. It will give emphasis to the fruitage of the spirit, encouraging such qualities in the ministry, as empathy, mildness, long suffering, love, joy, peace, and kindness coupled with goodness and faith."

The public is invited to all sessions and especially to hear the advertised lecture which will be presented at 3:00 p.m. Sunday, entitled "What Does the Resurrection of the Dead Mean for You and Yours?" Joseph Saia will discuss this important teaching of the Bible, offering a detailed compilation of Scripture to build faith and hope in God's promises, according to Crum.

Read Luke 6:27-36

Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. — Luke 23:34

DURING World War II, I was flying as copilot on a bomber high over the Pacific Ocean. Over our earphones crackled the latest war news from the front in Europe: fierce fighting on both sides; casualties high.

Suddenly, the cockpit seemed to light up! I saw in my mind's eye our world locked in mortal conflict — human beings behaving like animals in the jungle. I also saw the way of Christ shining in contrast to the way of the world. I prayed, "Father, forgive us; for we know not what we do."

During the years that have passed since that moment, my convictions have deepened that Christ's way remains mankind's greatest hope and challenge. The world still prefers the sword, considers love weakness, makes service enslavement, and praises self-assertion at the expense of others. Jesus refused to take up the sword; He took up the cross. His way is the way of love, self-denial, service.

PRAYER: Our Father, we thank Thee for Jesus Christ and His reassuring words to all His followers, "Be of Good cheer! I have overcome the world." We pray that the way of mankind everywhere may be opened, to the end that there may be goodwill among men and peace on earth. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

Catholic Men, Women To Hear School Problems

Mr. James E. Williams, Palm Beach County School Board Member will discuss school problems at a joint meeting of St. Philip's Altar Society and the Holy Name Society Tuesday evening Nov. 9 at 8 p.m. in the parish hall of St. Philip's Church.

Dressing up is always fun! Whether it's Halloween or a masquerade ball, almost everyone of every age enjoys wearing a costume. It makes us feel "different" — less restrained and more light-hearted. Perhaps it's a relief to leave our everyday self at home for a while. For many of us, that tired, worried, unhappy self is far from satisfactory but we seem to be stuck with it.

Yet outside this. The burden of self that we carry is unnecessary — and we have a standing invitation to lay it down! One of the joys of following Jesus is that we must "leave self behind." There is no place in the Christian life for worry or gloom, because the logical sequence of faith in God are contentment and serenity. Yes, the pessimist becomes cheer-visioned optimists when they are filled with the light that only God can give.

Do You Know Your Parliamentary Procedure?

At the beginning of the school year, the various clubs and school sponsored organizations pick up from last year begin their routine of meetings. For the success of every club, there must be organization, and at every meeting there must be order. The secretary will read the minutes of the previous meeting. After the secretary has read the minutes, the president calls for corrections from the membership. If there are none, he states, "The minutes are approved as read."

The president then calls on the treasurer by saying, "The treasurer will give his report." The treasurer reads the report with his signature.

The president calls on the reports of standing committees. After these are completed, he calls on the special committees for their reports.

Next item on the agenda is the opportunity for members to bring up any item not completed at the last meeting or bearing on some previous action of the club.

Next the president asks, "Is there any new business?" A member may introduce any new item of business to the club as a motion. Any motion requires a second.

The president should now state the motion and asks, "Are you ready for the question?" The members may now discuss the question after receiving recognition from the chair. The chairman then superintends the voting.

The meeting comes to order when the president taps the gavel once and says, "The meeting will come to order." The secretary will read the minutes of the previous meeting. Students Plan School Lunches

To create interest for school lunches, Mrs. Joet Connell, lunch manager, has organized a student committee to plan school menus.

Consisting of four student members, the committee meets each Tuesday and Thursday, and plans a menu for two days of each school week. These planned menus will usually be presented in the lunchroom on Tuesday and Thursday.

A new committee will be picked each month. The first committee has planned the menu for November including the Thanksgiving meal for the Wednesday before Thanksgiving. Selected by Gary Walker, student council president, the first committee planners are Aggie Gressinger, Linda Lee, Pat Vaughn, and Julio Perez.

Students Complete Ad Sells

The Journalism class held its annual campaign for selling ads to business throughout the Glades area several weeks ago. The selling of ads marked the beginning of preparation for the "66" Rambler.

Brenda Kelley, Business Manager for the Rambler, divided the business areas into sections and each student was assigned a section. Some of these Ads needed pictures and these were made yesterday afternoon and the remaining pictures will be made this afternoon.

A thermometer, showing the amount of sells, was drawn and placed on the blackboard by several members of the Journalism class. The sells ended on October 28, and the thermometer reached its appointed mark.

To raise more money for the Rambler, the Journalism class will sell Subscriptions for the Rambler to students and teachers next week.

Emblems Displayed Above Sign

A project to improve the appearance of the school sign has been undertaken by the DCT and Civitan Clubs. A large rectangular frame will be constructed above the sign for the purpose of displaying school club emblems.

The DCT boys have been working busily on the construction of the sign under the supervision of Mr. Bert Ward, DCT co-ordinator. The Civitan has agreed to pay half the expenses and the school will pay the balance.

All clubs will have their emblems displayed, but it will be the responsibility of each club to supply its own emblem. With the exception of a large school crest to be centered among the others, each emblem will fit into a 2' x 2' space.

Steam Kettle Installed

The lunch room had a new steam kettle installed about two weeks ago. It is doubled walled and steam flows between the two walls. This machine cost about $815.00.

Who Are Our Parents?

Have you ever stopped to think who your parents really are? Are they people who should give you money and the car any time we want it, or are they the people whom we love, honor, and obey?

Sometimes we fuss at our parents and then sometimes we feel sorry for the things that we say to them. Some people say really bad things and then don't even say "I'm sorry."

If you are one of those people, let me ask you this question. If one day a policeman came up to you and told you your parents had been killed in an accident, wouldn't you feel sorry for the things that you said to them before the accident? But you couldn't ask for their forgiveness then. So think before you talk back or fuss at your mother or father.

Some of us are not as lucky as the people with parents, because our parents have gotten separated and we live with either our mother or father or sometimes our grandparents.

But please remember if you live with your parents, respect them. They're people too. They like to be loved and respected just as we do. So try not to hurt them too much. I know, when I fuss at my grandmother and father I know how they feel. I am sorry for what I had said and I can only say, "I'm Sorry."

Interact Smashing Success At Halloween Carnival

At the third meeting of Interact, a car smash project was voted on unanimously for the annual P. T. A. Carnival. The funds that were received were given to Belle Glade and Gove Elementary Schools.

Boys who handed in men's berber application forms last week were approximately 100. The funds that were received were given to Belle Glade and Gove Elementary Schools.

Science Department

For several years, the need for Laboratory facilities has been critical. In the 1965-66 school budget the Science Department received approval for the purchase of the new equipment.

When the purchasing office of the county Board of Education reviewed equipment requested, they notified the school that possibly some equipment could be used from one of the schools which were being closed. Science teachers from Belle Glade inspected the equipment and found

Seacrest Defeats Rams

Last Friday the Seahawks defeated the Golden Rams with a score of 27 to 23. The game began on the dark side for Belle Glade when Seacrest scored in the first 4 minutes. The first quarter ended with two touchdowns and one field goal for Seacrest. After the first quarter it became apparent that the wind was a deciding factor in the ball game.

J. V. Rams Lose

The Junior Varsity played its last game last Thursday against Lake Worth and were defeated by a score of 26 to 6.

The Rams only touchdown was made by Harry Hutto in a 45-yard run. After last week's game, many J. V. Rams moved to varsity positions.

During the early part of the second quarter, Tony Latour caught a pass for a first down, but a few minutes later the Rams fumbled and the ball was returned to Seacrest when the Seahawks got a fourteen yard penalty the Rams made a safety, worth two points. This gave the Rams a lift of spirit and after the kick off they began their touchdown drive with a series of runs by Pat Gilbert, Gary Walker, and Tony Latour.

Tony Latour made the final move over the line for a touchdown for Belle Glade. At the end of the first half the Seahawks intercepted a pass and regained possession of the ball.

At the beginning of the second half the Mighty Rams halted the Seahawks' drive for a touchdown. The Rams began their match down the field with runs by Pat Gilbert, Tony Latour, and a punt by Mike Williams. The Seahawks scored again during the 3rd quarter. A 4th down punt by Gilbert enabled a Belle Glade to make an other safety, turning the tide once again to the Rams side.

Seven minutes before the 4th quarter, the Rams began another one of their famous touchdown drives with Tommy Woods making one of the most outstanding runs and Scottie Markham completing a pass by Tony Latour for a first down. The final run was a spectacular gallop by Bryant Davis. Sullivan kicked the extra point.

The first part of the 4th quarter was a battle on the 50 yard line. The Seahawks kicked and gave the Rams the ball on the 2 yard line. The Rams fumbled but held the Seahawks for 3 downs and forced them to be satisfied with a field goal. The Rams began the 4th quarter with a push down the field with a run by Bryant Davis and completed passes to Scottie Markham and Mickey Magahoe. The Mighty Rams scored a touchdown and a field goal in the remaining minutes of the half. Seacrest won over a Belle Glade by 2 points.

Gossiping Gandy

The "Roving Eye" knows all the tells all, so here it is.

This October must be the birthday month. It has been reported that Pat L. received a dozen red roses for his birthday. Pat could those roses have come from J. B. E. Another birthday beauty was Jackie B. We hear that an I. D. bracelet wasn't all that Jackie received. For those who are interested, contact Scottie M. I'm sure he can fill in the details.

Bad luck has had its misfortune with Pam B. Her present from Joe W. was broken in the mail. The Journalism class sang "Happy Birthday" and presented a cup-cake with one candle on it to Mrs. LaFram.

Martha T. that must have been a tremendous stomachache you got out of school with.

How come there is so much war going on between Donnie H. and Shirley W. Brenda B. you sure do have a jealous streak concerning a certain Clewis-ton guy. Cool it!

Julio P. it seems your eye is forever falling on a certain girl. You better grab her before its too late. Good luck!

Sue R. we can't understand why that navy mustang is parked at your house so often.

Mrs. Lanier did you have fun during 5th period speech looking at Pat V. and Brenda B. fewer tonsils Brenda or Pat?

Laurie J. how long is your string of boyfriends now, or is it still growing? Who are the "Angel" girls at school? Could it be Marcia D., Diane H., and Sue A. Can you explain how you got that name?

Joe S. and Eddie P. are going S. and Rhonda W. went to Texas. Cheer up boys, it's not the end of the world.

Sue A. what happened to you and Allan L.? Which one of you could answer this question for us?

Rams Seek Win Against Jupiter

The Rams will battle Class B's Jupiter Warriors tomorrow night in Jupiter for the first time in our football history. This is the first year the Warriors have had a home field. In the past they had to use neighboring fields.

Banquet Recognizes Rams

The football players and cheerleaders were treated to a steak dinner at the Elks Club the 23rd of October. The Athletic Council and their wives prepared the banquet. The Quarterback Club sponsored it.

All the football players and their dates, cheerleaders, coaches (including the B-team's high and varsity football coaches) and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Morris, Dr. and Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Crockett, and Mrs. J. D. Gogins were the guests.

Traditionally, the banquet showed the team the dedication for the hard work being done.

Life grabs me by the hand and runs.

We tear through seconds, the world is a blur of images.

I cannot understand, I stretch my hand to touch them.

"No time!" life shouts, "No time! No time!"

I beg him, go more slowly, that I might linger in the laughter of my friends.

That I might tarry for a time.

In young love's arms. "No time! No time!"

Life darts away. And I hang on — I must Or life will pass me by.

Despite threatening showers and dampening rains, South Bay P. T. A. retained a top record, grossing over $2100 at their Saturday P. T. A. Carnival. Principal H. A. Ouellette reported the net profit: has not been established and will be reported when all expenses are paid.

Principal Ouellette reports the Barbecue was "a soaking success" grossing over $800.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Underwood and family are newcomers to South Bay, coming from Homestead last weekend, and are living at 145 N. W. 2nd Avenue. One son is attending South Bay schools, and another son and a daughter who is a senior this year are entering Belle Glade High.

"It would be impossible to thank all those who participated in the preparation, serving and cleaning up," Mrs. Judy Sullivan, Barbecue Chairman, stated. "Our special thanks is due Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mace who worked diligently through the day," she said.

Particular thanks and acknowledgment is due The American Legion and Auxiliary who were in charge of the refreshment booth, Ouellette said. "The rains prevented the Carnival from being a complete success. The children were able to get in about an hour of merriment before the rains came."

The South Bay Garden Club, lead by its president Mrs. Edwin Leathlean, was in charge of the Spook House. Here the children really enjoyed the witches, spooks and Halloween setting which had them jumping as they made their way through the interior.

"We can't thank everyone enough," Principal Ouellette emphasized. "Cooperation of our people for community events just can't be by any town in the U. S. A."

First Church Of Christ Scientist

Scriptural reading on Adam and Eve and Cain and Abel are examined in Christian Science church services this week. The subject is "Adam and Fallen Man."

The Golden Text is from Ecclesiastes: "Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions."

A theme of redemption is brought out in some passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook: "The divine nature was best expressed in Christ Jesus, who threw upon mortals the truer reflection of God and lifted their lives higher than their poor thought-models would allow — thoughts which presented man as fallen, sick, sinning, and dying" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 259).

Florida law requires persons of age 21 and over to be state residents one year and county residents six months in order to be eligible for voter registration.

The Editor Speaks . . .

LET'S FACE IT!!!

That's right, the time has come for us to face it. Perhaps now, you are asking yourself the question "Let's face what?" Well, before you start trying to figure out what I am talking about, sit down (which you've probably already done), read and comprehend. Now that you are relaxed, let's face our problem. The problem is that we (the students of Lake Shore High) are rather lazy and irresponsible.

We want privileges, but we abuse them, thinking that nothing should be said. Let's take the lunch room situation for example. We are given the privilege of going to the lunch room at the beginning of the school year. For the most part, we haven't abused this privilege to the extent where it would have to be stopped. The only problem is that we don't exactly conduct ourselves right in the lunchroom. If we aren't cutting the lines we're doing something else to bring about a problem.

We complain about not having a yearbook. Let's take the seniors for an example. For the past two or three years the seniors have been trying to get a yearbook, but with no success. It is good that the seniors want a yearbook but the trouble is that they wait until they are seniors to get really concerned about one. If we really want a yearbook we should start working and planning for one in our junior year at least.

In a recent meeting with Mr. McCurdy, on October 18th, William Harper, asked the question "What are the chances of having a yearbook?" Mr. McCurdy replied "Great" (if the student body will cooperate). The only problem is getting the student body to cooperate. If we all cooperate we should have the best yearbook in the state of Florida. If you want a yearbook don't just sit around and talk about it. What we need is action, because right now actions speak louder than words. Remember a yearbook is what you make it.

For the most part, we expect to get something for nothing and that's impossible. We don't realize that in this day and time we must work, and work hard to make something of ourselves and get what we want. If we think we're too grown-up to take a little advice from our elders, then let's act adult, let's be responsible.

We must wake up and realize that in these vastly progressing times we must take advantage of all the available opportunities; opportunity only knocks once. We can not get by on what our parents and grandparents knew alone. Today, the more we take advantage of the new opportunities the better off we will be. We are almost at the point where a college education is needed to hold a simple job. Time and time again, we are becoming more and more complicated. We the students must wake up and take action before it is too late.

Let's face it students, and do something about it to better our condition.

Seniors Measure For Rings

Every student in school strives, aims toward and looks forward to his senior year in high school. Class rings, senior privileges, commencement, graduation, on the excitement of it all usually fascinate even the youngest. So, the seniors of '65-66 are not unique. All of us anxious awaited Mr. Earl Howard's (the ring man's) arrival, October 20, 1965. At 10:30 all seniors were seated in the cafeteria quietly, mind you each waiting to be measured for his class ring.

Oh yes, each of us knew how the rings would look, for they have been standardized for the past five years. Mr. Earl Howard, the Herff Jones Representative, has assured us that after receiving a deposit from each senior, the rings will be ready in approximately three months.

After measuring for rings, we decided to take individual and group, and group pictures some time during the month of November.

Party Tips

1. No boy or girl should go to a party to which he or she is not invited and no one should be allowed at your parties who has not been invited.
2. Every party of teenagers should be adequately chaperoned.
3. Alcoholic beverages should not be served to minors and boys of high school age.
4. Parties should end at a reasonable hour. A girl or boy should inform his or her parents.

Home Economics Teachers Attend Meeting

On Saturday, October 18, 1965, Mrs. Inez V. Mack and Miss Cynthia Bess attended the Southeast Florida Home Economics Association. The meeting was held at the Algiens Hotel, Miami Beach, Florida.

The program included registration of all attendees which was followed by a Business Meeting which was held in the Kismet Room. Mrs. Joanne Jack, District Chairman presided over the meeting. After the meeting was adjourned the Homecoming teachers assembled in the Rubaiyat Room for the luncheon, and the luncheon program, which followed after everyone had been served.

The program was directed by Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan. The program included speakers who spoke on various subjects. "The Message," "The Media," and "The Method." Mr. Kenneth C. Kessler, a Sales Coordinator Tropics, Inc. spoke as "The Message." Mr. Bob Ray, Executive Assistant to the President of the Bankers Life and Casualty Co., spoke on "The Media" and Mr. Robert G. Venn, President of Venn-Occo and Associates, spoke on "The Method." Questions were entertained by each speaker at the end of each speech, and evaluation sheets were given out to evaluate the meeting. The meeting afforded many interesting pointers and was most valuable.

The Mighty Bobcats

We the Bobcats of Lake Shore High, Support our team and you know why. We go on the field bravely at night. We always go to give a good fight.

We play our games and win the same. Other teams go home with all the pain. We travel to the games with stout hearts. The opposition is left without good parts.

Teams come to our town and play on our ground. We welcome them all, then cool them down. They walk around town spreading the news. Late that night we give them the blues.

We know that we have very good coaches. For we crush any others like giant roaches. Six teams come shining and quite bright. Until they challenged the Bobcats might.

—Robert Florence

Northwestern coach James Wanda issued an unofficial acceptance promptly. Lake Shore, a class A school has rolled 188 points in five victories without a loss. Northwestern a Class AA school has a 4-1 record after Kennedy of Riviera upset them 7-0 a few weeks ago.

"I think we have a better team than any of the Miami schools," coach Irvin said. "They have nothing to gain by playing us after their championship." Northwestern led the Big 9 South Conference last year with a 9-1 record.

Homecoming Theme vs. Reality

Our boys, the Bobcats, will be performing a most important "Operation" tomorrow night. Their patients are going to be the "Thunderbirds." I'm quite sure the operation will be a success, because the "Bobcats" haven't failed us yet. Our fullback, James Freeman, will start the operation by a powerful kick-off and the remainder of the team will assist him as soon as the game begins. After Freeman starts the operation, our guards will be on the lookout for any dangers. They are Thomas McGrady and Earnest Clark. If any danger should occur, there will always be the mighty tackles to try and stop them. If they are successful in their tackling our quarterback, Charles Haynes, will strive for the goal, followed by: Ronald Cooke, Daniel Parrish, James Freeman, Joe Sheely, and Charles Walker.

Now after the "operation" is over, the destination on top of the moon has been reached, then the homecoming theme will be a reality. Mary Alice Brown

Everglades Experiment Station staff members entertained Dr. and Mrs. R. V. Allison at a pot luck supper at the Community Center last Thursday evening. Dr. Allison was presented with a Thermometer - Barometer - Hygrometer weather instrument to keep on his desk for second-reading the weather-man. He was also given a small traveling case.

Dr. Allison arrived at the Experiment Station immediately following the 1926 hurricane, after several years of soil survey work in Cuba.

Dr. Allison gave some very interesting reminiscences on the early days in the Glades and of the roads and transportation. A trip to Clewiston in early 1927 involved going over by Mr. Williamson's boat (later his father-in-law) and return on foot to Daniel Boardwider of Coral Gables with his home near Bare Beach and by foot trail from there to South Bay, where he hitched a ride to Belle Glade.

He recalled his series of Whippets No. 1, the green job with the rumble seat.

No. 2, the yellow roadster and No. 3 the coupe. He told of the primitive muck and rock roads in the area, and of a trip from Ft. Pierce to Okeechobee at night with the roads completely flooded and many culverts washed out except for the plank stringers. He ruefully admitted that he had taken a wrong turn at Ft. Pierce and thought he was in Jupiter, and since the Taylor Creek bridge, south of Okeechobee was completely washed out, he turned around made the trip back to Ft. Pierce.

The evening was completed with a series of colored slides on the painting of Rembrandt from the Dutch National Art Museum, presented with comments on the artist and his painting by Ferdinand LeGrand of the station staff.

Farmers' Soc. Soc. Nos. Asked

Farmers who are receiving payments in connection with participation in farm action programs are being asked to let the ASACs County Office know what the Social Security numbers are.

It is explained that, beginning January 1, 1966, the identifying Social Security numbers will be entered on payment drafts to producers, and they will also be used by the Department of Agriculture in reporting such payments to the Internal Revenue Service.

This is required under the Internal Revenue Code. Any questions about this matter should be taken up with the ASAC County Committee.

Classes Set For Doctors, Nurses On Care For Heart Patients

Physicians and nurses in Palm Beach County will go back to class this month to learn new developments in treating and caring for heart patients.

The Heart Association of Palm Beach and Martin Counties is sponsoring the physicians workshop on Nov. 12 and 13 and the nursing seminar on Nov. 16.

The meetings are part of our continuing program to keep the medical team informed on the newer aspects of handling cardiovascular disease," according to Dr. Sidney Davidson of Lake Worth, chairman of the Association's professional education committee.

Dr. Leon I. Goldberg, director of the Section of Clinical Pharmacology at Emory University School of Medicine, Atlanta, Ga., will present a two-day workshop for area physicians on cardiovascular drugs.

Physicians from nine Florida counties have been invited to participate in the program at the Holiday Inn in Palm Beach. Sessions will be conducted Friday, Nov. 12, 8 to 10 p. m., and Saturday, Nov. 13, 2 to 5 p. m.

Registration should be made through the Heart Association office, 324 S. Olive Ave., West Palm Beach.

The program for professional nurses, "Intensive Cardiac Care," will be presented on Nov. 16 in Phillips Auditorium at Good Samaritan Hospital, West Palm Beach.

The seminar will be presented twice to allow nurses on all hospital shifts to attend. One session will be held from 8 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., and a repeat session from 6 p. m. until 10:30 p. m.

Dr. Fred D. Holford, Delray Beach, and Miss Marion Brozon, R. N., Riviera Beach, are coordinators for the all-new nursing seminar which stems from a cardiac care program presented last year by the Heart Association.

"Our Cuba" Latina Columna

Will Be Presented In Miami Nov. 7

El próximo Domingo, día 7 de Noviembre, "Nuestra Cuba" en el Dade County Auditorium de Miami, 27 Avenue y Flagler Street, en Miami, a las 8:00 de la tarde, y por la noche a las 8:00. El precio de la entrada es 75 centavos.

Si ya ha visto "Nuestra Cuba" vuelva a verla. Si no la ha visto, aproveche una de estas funciones para verla. La grandísima bella obra visual y musical de la obra encanta y agrada a todo el que la ve; pero para nosotros los cubanos es algo que mas que un bello espectáculo, es, por lo que nos conmueve y estremecemos, un acto de fervor patriótico, una reafirmación de nuestro amor a Cuba, una forma de plegeria por nuestra isla amada.

Los bellísimos cuadros folklóricos de viejas canchales y costumbres cubanas se presentan bajo la dirección artística de la Sra. Pile de la Rosa de Menéndez, y la escenografía está a cargo de Demetrio Menéndez. Los trajes han sido diseñados por Antonio.

La recaudación que se obtiene de este espectáculo se entrega al Sr. Manolo Reyes, que preside el Sertoma Club, con destino a los Regulares Cubanos. Para separar y adquirir entradas aquí en Belle Glade, puede llamar a la Sr. Cora Montalvo, teléfono 998-5883.

En el antiguo Egipto, las aguas del Nilo contenidas por la nueva represa de Aswan, están elevando su nivel, y muchos monumentos faraónicos serán cubiertos por las aguas, entre ellos el Templo de RAMSES II esculpido en roca viva, en Abu Simbel, hace 3,400 años.

Un team internacional de ingenieros de la UNESCO trabaja para salvar el templo trasladándolo a un lugar mas alto. Esta siendo cortado en bloques de 20 x 30 toneladas y desmantelados por 1,500 hombres representando 16 naciones. Ahora comienzan el prodigioso trabajo de cortar las estatuas para reconstruirlas a salvo del alcance de las aguas.

Next Sunday, Nov. 7th "Our Cuba" is presented at the Dade County Auditorium of Miami, 27th Avenue and Flagler Street, matinee at 3:00 in the afternoon, and at night 8:00 p. m. The entrance ticket is 75c.

If you have seen "Our Cuba" see it again. If you haven't, do not fail to see one of these shows. The wonderful beauty both visual and musical of this show enchants and pleases everyone who sees it; but to us the Cubans is something more than a lovely spectacle. It moves so much that it represents an act of patriotic fervor, a reaffirmation of our love for Cuba, one form of prayer for our beloved island.

Beautiful folkloric representations of old songs and customs are presented under the artistic direction of Mrs. Pile de la Rosa de Menéndez. The costumes designed by Antonio. The money collected obtained by this spectacle will be delivered to Mr. Manolo Reyes, who presides the Sertoma Club, with destiny to the Cuban Refugees. To separate and acquire tickets here in Belle Glade you may call Mrs. Cora Montalvo, telephone 998-5883.

Halloween Celebration Has Interesting Origin

La Fiesta de Halloween del Sábado 30 de Octubre estuvo muy concurrida de muchos niños y adultos.

Halloween tiene su origen en el "halo" de los santos, y "een" es abreviado evening o vigilia del Día de Todos los Santos, que la iglesia celebra en Noviembre. La fiesta se celebra con fiestas, trucos y disfraces, que viene de muchas creencias.

La moderna costumbre de decorar los Halloween parties con calabazas, hojas, y mazos de maíz viene del tiempo de los druidas que creían que en Halloween, fantasmas, espíritus, hadas, brujas y duendes venían para hacerle males a la gente. Y se construían grandes hogueras para espantar dichas criaturas.

De esta creencia y la costumbre druida tiene su origen el uso de brujas y fantasmas como decoración en las festividades de Halloween.

Las tempranas poblaciones de Europa tenían un festival llamado Druid Holiday. Y en el año 700 la iglesia nombro Noviembre 1 festival para honra de Todos los Santos.

Las viejas costumbres paganas y el festival Cristiano forman esta fiesta.

On October 23rd the Boy Scouts had a party showing their parents the work done each week. It took place at Women's Club, and decorated with skeletons and pumpkins, motives of Halloween.

Present among the attending parents were: Angelica y Tony Martinez, daughter Vivian Martinez; Nena Puig and her daughter Vivian, and Mrs. Luisa Roca.

Among the boy scouts were their sons Henry Puig and Tony Martinez Jr.

'Mr. Mac' Enters Good Samaritan

Things just weren't the same at the Election Polls on Tuesday... one knew, or felt that something was missing from the familiar atmosphere, perhaps without realizing what it was.

C. W. "Mac" McDonald wasn't around to greet each voter and pass a friendly comment and it's the first time in all the years most of us have lived here that he was absent.

"Mr. Mac" rushed down as usual, to open the polls at 7 Tuesday morning, but was seized with pain shortly after unloading the election gear.

On Wednesday, acting on the advice of his local physician, he was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital for treatment and perhaps minor surgery.

Mac is hoping his stay will be short and his recovery complete with a few days good rest.

Florida Power & Light Cooking Caravan To Be Here November 10 at Kwik Chek

Florida Power & Light Company's Commercial Electric Cooking Caravan will make a visit to the area, after just having completed a successful four-months swing through the company's service area. The unique demonstrations presented by the electric Cooking Caravan were acclaimed by hundreds of food service operators, dietitians, hospital administrators, archbishops and school board members.

This is Florida's first complete Commercial Cooking Caravan, according to Curtis Chase, local Manager of Florida Power & Light Company. It has 252 square feet of kitchen space and reverse-cycle electrical air conditioning for comfort, both in winter and summer. Over 30 pieces of the most modern electric cooking equipment are arranged in four cooking systems, namely, Institutional, Fast Food, Cookbooks and Club. The arrangements simulate typical requirements for food preparation in the smallest to the largest eating place.

"Modern methods are vital to profitable management," says Mr. Chase, "and we hope that every food service operator will visit this display, so that they can see by actual operation how the various items would fit into their businesses for increased efficiency and greater economy in the production of superbly foods cooked electrically."

The 50-foot long traveling Caravan will roll into Belle Glade on November 10. While here, it will be located at Kwik Chek Super Market Parking lot on West Lake Road and will be open from 8:30 A. M. to 5 P. M. for visits by local food operators and their staffs. Special meetings will also be scheduled, at which time guests will be served samples of food prepared on the Caravan's electric equipment.

Stroke Patient Rehabilitation Demonstrated To Hospital Staff

The latest techniques to rehabilitate the Stroke patient were presented Tuesday, Nov. 2nd, to the nursing staff of the Glades General Hospital by Mrs. Grace N. Lanning, R. N., program director of Florida Heart Association.

Mrs. Jacqueline Carter, director of nursing service, arranged the program to be presented to all nurses, orderlies, and aids in this area. Mrs. Lanning was introduced by Mrs. Guy D. Wood, Jr., Heart Representative.

It was stressed that stroke patients do not necessarily have to be dependent when they return home from the hospital. Studies have shown that a majority of stroke patients can regain their independence and often return to their old jobs. Through the use of simple techniques properly applied, and equipment available in every home and hospital, many stroke patients are able to lead useful and productive lives.

Two informative booklets called "DO IT YOURSELF AGAIN" and "UP & AROUND," on self-devices and helping the stroke patient resume his daily activities, were presented to the hospital library by the Heart Association.
